

Approving BPL when it will cause interference to existing services is not the right thing to do.. No matter how much money someone might make. If BPL were to make telephone or TV unusable would you approve it? Please reconsider.